This code applied to all those involved in football under the auspices of The Football Association.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR COACHES

Coaches are key to the establishment of ethics in football. Their concept of ethics and their attitude directly affects the behaviour of players under their supervision. Coaches are, therefore, expected to pay particular care to the moral aspect of their conduct.

Coaches have to be aware that almost all of their everyday decisions and choices of actions, as well as strategic targets, have ethical implications.

It is natural that winning constitutes a basic concern for coaches. This code is not intended to conflict with that. However, the code calls for coaches to disassociate themselves from a win-at-all-costs attitude.

Increased responsibility is requested from coaches involved in coaching young people. The health, safety, welfare and moral education of young people are a first priority, before the achievement of the reputation of the club, school, coach or parent.

Set out below is The FA Coaches Association Code of Conduct (which reflects the standards expressed by sports coach UK) and forms the benchmark for all involved in coaching.

THE FA COACHES ASSOCIATION CODE OF CONDUCT

- 1. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of sport.
- 2. Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance.
- 3. Coaches must adhere to all guidelines laid down by governing bodies.
- 4. Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect.
- 5. Coaches must not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit and reward.

- 6. Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
- 7. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of players.
- 8. Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the players (and where appropriate, parent) exactly what is expected of them and also what they are entitled to expect from their coach.
- 9. Coaches must co-operate fully with other specialists (e.g. other coaches, officials, sports scientists, doctors, and physiotherapists) in the best interests of the player.
- 10. Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play) and never condone violations of the Laws of the Game, behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques.
- 11. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- 12. Not to use or tolerate inappropriate language.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PARENTS/SPECTATORS

Parents/spectators have a great influence on children's enjoyment and success in football. All children play football because they first and foremost love the game – it's fun. It is important to remember that however good a child becomes at football within your club it is important to reinforce the message to parents/spectators that positive encouragement will contribute to:

- Children enjoying football.
- A sense of personal achievement.
- Self-esteem.
- Improvement in the child's skills and techniques.

A parent's/spectators expectations and attitudes have a significant bearing on a child's attitude towards:

- Other players.
- Officials.

- Spectators.

Ensure that parents/spectators within your club are always positive and encouraging towards all of the children, not just their own.

Encourage parents/spectators to:

- Applaud the opposition as well as your own team.
- Avoid coaching the child during the game.
- Refrain from shouting and screaming.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY FOR CLUBS

Ashton Boys Football Club is committed to a policy of equal treatment of all members and requires all members of whatever level or authority, to abide and adhere to this general principle and the requirements of the Codes of Practice issued by the Equal Opportunities Commission and Commission for Racial Equality.

All members are expected to abide by the requirements of the Race Relations ACT 1976, Sec Discrimination Act 1986 and Disability Act 1995. Specifically discrimination is prohibited in:

- Treating any individual on grounds of gender, colour, marital status, race, nationality or ethnic or national origin, religion, sexual orientation or disability less favourably than others.
- Expecting an individual solely on the grounds stated above to comply with requirement(s) for any reason whatsoever related to their membership, which are different to the requirements for others.
- Imposing on an individual, requirements which are in effect more onerous on that individual than they are on others. For example this would include applying a condition (which is not warranted by the requirements of the position) which makes it more difficult for members of a particular race or sex to comply than others not of that race or sex.
- Victimisation of an individual.
- Harassment of an individual (which for the purposes of this policy and the actions and sanction applicable thereto is regarded as discrimination).
- Any other act or omission of an act, which has its effect the disadvantaging of a members against another, or others, purely on the above grounds. Thus, in all the club's recruitment, selection, promotion and training processes, as well as disciplinary and other matters (in other words all instances where those in control of members are required to make judgements between them) it is essential that merit, experience, skills and temperament are considered as objectively as possible.

Any member found guilty of discrimination will be instructed to desist forthwith. Since discrimination in its many forms is against the Football Club's policy, any members offending will be dealt with under the disciplinary procedure.

Ashton Boys Football Club commits itself to the disabled person whenever possible and will treat such members, in aspects of their recruitment and membership, in exactly the same manner as other members. The difficulties of their disablement permitting, assistance will be given wherever possible to ensure that disabled members are helped in gaining access. Appropriate training will be made to such members who request it.

GOALPOST SAFETY GUIDELINES

The Football Association, along with the Department for Culture, Media and Sport, the Health and Safety Executive and The British Standards Institution, would like to draw your attention to the following guidelines for the safe use of goalposts. Too many serious injuries and fatalities have occurred in recent years as a result of unsafe or incorrect use of goalposts. Safety is always of paramount importance and everyone in football must play their part to prevent similar incidents occurring in the future.

For safety reasons goalposts of any size (including those which are portable and not installed permanently at a pitch or practice field) must always be anchored to the ground

- Portable goalposts must be secured by the use of chain anchors or appropriate anchor weights to prevent them from toppling forward.
- It is essential that under no circumstances should children or adults be allowed to climb, swing on or play with the structures of the goalposts.
- Particular attention is drawn to the fact that if not properly assembled and secured, portable goalposts may topple over.
- Regular inspections of goalposts should be carried out to check that they are kept properly maintained.
- Portable goalposts should not be left in place after use. They should be dismantled and removed to a place of secure storage.
- It is strongly recommended that nets should only be secured with plastic hooks or tape and not be metal cup hooks. Any metal cup hooks should if possible be removed and replaced. New goalposts should not be purchased if they include metal cup hooks which cannot be replaced.
- Goalposts which are home-made or which have been altered from their original size or constructions should not be used. These have been the cause of a number of deaths and injuries.

Guidelines to prevent toppling:

- Follow the manufacturer's guidelines in assembling goalposts
- Before use, adults should:

- Ensure each goal is anchored securely in its place
- Exert a significant downward force on the cross bar
- Exert a significant backward force on both upright posts

These must be repeated until it is established that the structure is secure. If not, alternative goals/pitches must be used.

For reference, you should note that The FA and BSI have developed a standard for further purchases (PAS 36:2000), available from BSI. It is hoped this will be developed into a full British Standard in due course.

Remember to use all equipment, not just goalposts, safety at all times.
